

KELD CHAPEL

Study Day 2025

Revd Kim Plumptre

Saturday 18 October 2025

10.30am-3.30pm in the Upper Room

The image of God

For almost two years, I've had the joy and privilege of serving as the Moderator of the Northern Synod. It's a role I've come to deeply love, filled with both rich blessings and meaningful challenges. Alongside this, I'm also a proud mum of five and grandma to seven! Life is rarely quiet, but it's full, and I wouldn't have it any other way.

I'm a visual learner with a deep love for art in all its forms. Art has played a powerful role in shaping my faith, from the beauty of stained glass windows to the raw honesty of Caravaggio's Doubting Thomas.

During our time together, we'll be reflecting on the image of God and how it speaks to us in deeply personal ways. There will also be space to enjoy and be inspired by the beauty of our surroundings.

We'll gather on the 18th of October, starting at 10:30am and wrapping up by 3:30pm. Don't forget to bring some lunch, we'll share food, conversation, and a meaningful day together.

I look forward to being with you!
